

The Heinrich Böll Foundation

The Heinrich Böll Foundation offered scholarships to Tunisian and Egyptian students who want to study in Germany.

Start of the scholarship: from 1 October 2012

Duration of the scholarship: 6 – 24 months

Scholarship: 750.00 € / month plus an additional lump sum (e.g. for books and clothes) as well as, if applicable, family allowance, children's allowance, and costs for a language course. By granting the scholarship, the scholarship department finances the stay in Germany as well as the travel costs to and from Germany. The scholarship does not include organizational services (e.g. support for finding accommodation etc.)

Target group: graduates from Tunisia and Egypt, all subjects

Application requirements:

-Applicants must have obtained a first degree at the time of application (e.g. a bachelor's degree);

-Applicants must show proof of acceptance to a German university by the start of the scholarship at the latest;

-Applicants must prove basic knowledge of German at the time of application (if a scholarship is granted, additional German courses can be financed)

-The scholarship cannot be combined with a scholarship from another grant-making or public institution

Application deadline: 1 March 2012
